

Kimberly VanWyhe

Kimberly VanWyhe is currently Vice President of Kiley & Associates, focusing on business development and policy and strategy development. Kiley & Associates provides strategic economic development planning and positioning, business and product development, market penetration, Congressional and U.S. military situational awareness, due diligence, and M&A strategies. Kimberly is also the Policy Director for Building Cyber Security, a non-profit organization leading Cyber Physical standards development, education, certifications, and labeling authority, advancing physical security, safety, and privacy in public and private sectors.

Kimberly received her bachelor's degree in political science from St. John's University in 2004 and received her MBA in International Business from the Thunderbird School of Global Management in 2014, she also holds a certification in Global Oil and Gas Management from Thunderbird. Kimberly's previous professional experience includes working on multiple political campaigns on both the state and federal levels as well as working for the Alaska State Legislature where she worked on drafting portions of the state capital budget. After completing her MBA, Kimberly worked for the Cohen Group, a defense-oriented consulting firm founded by former Secretary of Defense William Cohen. She then served as the Director of Energy Policy at the American Action Forum, a D.C.-based think-tank focusing on economic, domestic, and fiscal policy issues. Kimberly was raised in Fairbanks, Alaska, and currently resides in Washington D.C.

lucian@ucanpower.org

<https://www.linkedin.com/in/lucian-niemeyer-307aa65/>

